

SUDHEER GUNDRA LIQUOR SHOP

Premium Spirits & Beverages

2025 ANNUAL SALES REPORT

Executive Summary

The year 2025 marked a period of robust growth and premiumization for Sudheer Gundra Liquor Shop. Despite shifts in consumer spending habits, our curated selection of high-end spirits, rare wines, and craft beers allowed us to maintain strong margins and drive customer loyalty. This report outlines the overall sales performance, category breakdowns, and key monthly trends over the past fiscal year.

Category Performance

Consumer preferences heavily trended towards premium, aged spirits this year. The Whiskey & Scotch category accounted for nearly 40% of our total revenue, driven by limited-edition releases and luxury gifting during the holiday season. The Wine & Champagne segment saw steady growth, particularly in Old World red wines and vintage sparkling selections. Meanwhile, craft and imported beers maintained a consistent, high-volume baseline.

Key Insight: High-net-worth individual (HNWI) purchases of rare collections (bottles priced over AED 2,500) saw a 15% increase compared to the previous year, highlighting the success of our personalized VIP client outreach program.

Monthly Sales Breakdown

The table below details our monthly gross revenue, highlighting the peak seasons. As expected, Q4 demonstrated the highest sales velocity due to corporate gifting and end-of-year celebrations.

MONTH	GROSS REVENUE (AED)	TOP SELLING ITEM	GROWTH (MOM)
January	310,000	Glenfiddich 18 Yr	-

MONTH	GROSS REVENUE (AED)	TOP SELLING ITEM	GROWTH (MOM)
February	285,000	Moët & Chandon Imperial	-8.0%
March	320,000	Macallan 12 Yr Double Cask	+12.2%
April	290,000	Hendrick's Gin	-9.3%
May	305,000	Corona Extra (Cases)	+5.1%
June	315,000	Grey Goose Vodka	+3.2%
July	295,000	Dom Pérignon Vintage	-6.3%
August	300,000	Johnnie Walker Blue Label	+1.6%
September	340,000	Yamazaki 12 Yr	+13.3%
October	390,000	Veuve Clicquot Yellow Label	+14.7%
November	480,000	Macallan 18 Yr Sherry Oak	+23.0%
December	620,000	Assorted Luxury Hampers	+29.1%

Future Outlook (2026)

Moving into 2026, Sudheer Gundra Liquor Shop will focus on expanding our rare and fine wine portfolio and introducing an exclusive sommelier-curated tasting room experience. We aim to strengthen our supply chain partnerships to secure higher allocations of Japanese whiskies and limited-run agave spirits, anticipating continued premiumization trends in the regional beverage market.